Continuous Disclosure and External Communications Policy

Asset Vision Co Limited ACN 164 718 361 (Company)

Last reviewed and adopted by the Board on 22 August 2024

Continuous Disclosure and External Communications Policy

1. Policy objectives

- 1.1 The objective of this Policy is to ensure the market is fully informed of the group's strategy and financial performance.
- 1.2 The Company will seek to achieve this by providing equal access to information for all investors and avoiding the disclosure of material information to any person on a selective basis.

2. Policy

Equal access to information

- 2.1 Disclosable price sensitive information must be disclosed to the ASX prior to disclosure to analysts, the media, or others outside the Company.
- 2.2 Following confirmation of receipt of lodgment, all information released to the ASX will be available on or through the Company's website.

Continuous disclosure

- 2.3 Except for certain confidential information that no reasonable person would expect to be disclosed, once the Company becomes aware of any information concerning it that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities, it will immediately tell the ASX the information.
- 2.4 Continuous disclosure obligations are reviewed as a standing item on the agenda for each regular meeting of the Board and all directors are required to confirm details of any matter within their knowledge that might require disclosure to the market.

Periodic reporting

- 2.5 The Company will communicate regularly with shareholders through the following means:
 - 2.5.1 Its full Annual Report, which the Company will send to shareholders by electronic copy and will be made available through the Company's website;
 - 2.5.2 Its annual general meeting, at which shareholders will be updated as to the Company's performance and outlook. Shareholders will be given the opportunity to ask questions of the Board and of the auditor about the audit who will be invited to the meeting;

Continuous Disclosure and External Communications Policy

2.5.3 Release of annual results in August each year and interim results in February.

Market briefings

2.6 The Company will brief the market as required:

2.6.1 If unexpected material events occur during the year; and

2.6.2 To ensure that the market is clear about the Company's strategy, business, and outlook.

2.7 No new materially price sensitive information will be provided at these briefings. Questions at briefings that deal with material information not previously disclosed will not be answered. All inadvertent disclosure of material information during market briefings should be immediately released to the ASX.

2.8 Slides and presentations used in briefings are to be released to the ASX.

2.9 The Company may review analysts' research reports but will limit its comments to factual matters and material previously disclosed.

Public Announcements – authorised spokespersons and releases

2.10 Only the Chairman or a person authorised by the Chairman is authorised to make any public statement on behalf of the Company.

2.11 All ASX and media releases are to be provided by the Board except for:

2.11.1 Urgent releases which must be approved by the Chairman and advised to all directors prior to release; and

2.11.2 Administrative releases such as disclosure of directors' interests and substantial holder notices.

2.12 2.12 Subject to the continuous disclosure obligations, the Company will not comment on rumours or market speculation.

Role of Company Secretary and CFO

2.13 All proposed media releases and external presentations must be reviewed by the Company Secretary in advance in order to minimise the risk of breaching the continuous disclosure requirements, with the Company Secretary performing a vetting and authorisation role designed to ensure that company announcements are made in a timely manner, are factual, do not omit material information and are expressed in a clear and objective manner that allows investors to assess the impact of the information when making investment decisions.

2.14 The Company Secretary is responsible for all communications with the ASX.

2.15 The Chief Financial Officer should be involved in all discussions and meetings with analysts and investors, if possible or be fully briefed about those meetings. A record should be kept of all meetings and briefings with investors/analysts.

- 2.16 The Chief Financial Officer is responsible for ensuring the safeguarding of confidential corporate information to avoid premature disclosure.

Trading halts

- 2.17 If a trading halt is necessary to ensure an orderly, fair and informed market, it must be approved by the Board unless it is urgent, in which case it must be approved by the Chairman (or a person authorised by the Chairman) and advised to all directors prior to release.

Electronic communications

Shareholders are provided with the option to receive communications from and send communications to the Company and its security registry electronically.
